

the Corporation, prior to the redemption date specified in such notice, may deposit funds for such redemption, in trust for the account of the holders of the Preferred Stock to be redeemed, with a bank or trust company organized under the laws of the United States of America, or the State of Illinois, doing business in Illinois, designated in such notice of redemption, and thereupon all shares of the Preferred Stock with respect to which such deposit shall have been made shall no longer be deemed to be outstanding, and the holders of such shares forthwith upon such deposit shall have no right in or in respect of the Corporation other than the right to receive out of said deposit the redemption price, including dividends accumulated and unpaid to the date fixed for such redemption, without interest, upon surrender of the certificate or certificates for such shares or the notation of such redemption on the certificate or certificates with the approval of the Corporation. Any funds so deposited with a bank or trust company as hereinbefore provided which remain unclaimed by the holders of any shares called for redemption at the end of two years from the date fixed for the redemption of such shares shall be repaid by said bank or trust company to the Corporation, upon its request, after which payment the holders of the shares so called for redemption shall look only to the Corporation for the payment of the redemption price of such shares.

D. New Preferred

(1) Series of New Preferred

The Board of Directors shall have authority, by resolution or resolutions, to divide the New Preferred of each class into series, to establish and fix the distinguishing designation of each such series and the number of shares thereof (which number, by like action of the Board of Directors from time to time thereafter, may be increased except when otherwise provided by the Board of Directors in creating such series, or may be decreased but not below the number of shares thereof then outstanding) and, within the limitations of applicable law of the State of Illinois and as otherwise set forth in this Subdivision, to fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of the shares of each series so established prior to the issuance thereof, and particularly with respect to:

(a) The rate of dividend and the initial original issue date or other date from which such dividends shall be cumulative;

(b) The price or prices (not to exceed 120% of the par value thereof plus unpaid accrued dividends) at and the terms and conditions on which shares may be redeemed;

(c) The amounts payable upon shares in the event of voluntary or involuntary liquidation;

(d) The terms of sinking fund provisions, if any for the redemption or purchase of shares;

(e) The terms and conditions on which shares may be converted into shares of any other class or into shares of any series of the same or any other class, if the shares of any series are issued with the privilege of conversion; and

(f) Any other variations in the relative rights and preferences as between different series, not inconsistent with the provisions of these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, to the fullest extent permitted by the laws of the State of Illinois.

(2) Incorporation, Exclusion or Limitation of Terms by Reference

The Board of Directors, in fixing and determining any terms of any series of New Preferred as permitted under paragraph D(1), may incorporate by specific reference (with or without any permissible variations, exclusions or limitations then determined by the Board of Directors) any or all of the terms set forth in this Subdivision or in any other resolution fixing the terms of the same or another series of New Preferred, provided that such other resolution has been duly filed and recorded pursuant to the applicable law of the State of Illinois.

E. Old $50 Preferred

(1) Designation

The shares of Old $50 Preferred, Series A and Series B, are, respectively, known and designated as "4 1/2% Cumulative Preferred Stock, Series A", and "5% Cumulative Preferred Stock, Series B".

(2) Liquidation Preferences

B, in case of liquidation, dissolution or winding up, as generally provided in paragraph C(2), shall be as follows: an amount equal to One Hundred Five Per Cent (105%) of the par value thereof in case such liquidation, dissolution or winding up shall be voluntary; and an amount equal to the par value thereof in case such liquidation, dissolution or winding up shall be involuntary; plus, in each case, an amount equal to dividends accumulated and unpaid thereon at the date of distribution.

(3) Redemption

The Old $50 Preferred, both Series A and Series B, shall be redeemable, in whole or in part, on any date, in the manner provided in paragraph C(7), at a redemption price equal to Fifty-Two and 50/100 Dollars ($52.50) a share, plus an amount equal to dividends accumulated and unpaid thereon at the date of redemption.

(4) Dividend Rate

The dividend rate applicable to the Old \$50 Preferred, Series A, is four and one-half per cent ($4\frac{1}{2}\%$) per annum on the par value thereof; and the dividend rate applicable to the Old \$50 Preferred, Series B, is five percent (5%) per annum on the par value thereof. Such dividends in the case of both Series A and Series B are payable quarterly on the first days of March, June, September and December of each year.

F. Old $100 Preferred

(1) The shares of Old $100 Preferred are known and designated as "7-7/8% Cumulative $100 Par Value Preferred Stock."

(2) The authorized number of shares of Old $100 Preferred shall be Twenty-Five Thousand (25,000).

(3) The dividend rate applicable to the Old $100 Preferred shall be 7-7/8 percent per annum on the par value thereof, payable November 1, 1973, and quarterly thereafter on the first days of February, May, August and November of each subsequent year; and the date from which such dividends on any of such shares shall be cumulative shall be the date of the original issue of such shares.

(4) The Old $100 Preferred shall be redeemable, in whole or in part, on any date, in the manner provided in paragraph C(7), at a redemption price of:

$107.875 per share if redeemed on or before December 31, 1974, and if redeemed thereafter, at a redemption price of $107.875 per share reduced by $0.2716 per share for each full year elapsed after December 31, 1973 to the date of redemption but in no event reduced below $100 per share, plus, in every case, an additional amount equal to dividends accumulated and unpaid on the shares redeemed at the date of redemption. It is understood, however, that the Old $100 Preferred shall not be redeemable prior to August 1, 1983 from the proceeds received by the Corporation through the incurring of debt, or through the issuance of any preferred stock of the Corporation, if such debt shall have an "effective interest cost", or such preferred stock shall have an "effective dividend cost", to the Corporation of less than 7-7/8 percent ("effective interest cost" and "effective dividend cost" to be determined in each case in accordance with accepted financial practice).

(5) The amount payable with respect to the Old $100 Preferred in the event of the voluntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, as generally provided in Paragraph C(2), shall be an amount equal to the redemption price applicable at the date of distribution as set forth in the preceding subdivision (3) of this Section; and the amount payable with respect to said Old $100 Preferred in the event of the involuntary liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the Corporation, as generally provided in paragraph C(2), shall be an amount equal to the par value thereof plus an amount equal to dividends accumulated and unpaid thereon at the date of distribution, and without premium.

(6) As long as any shares of the Old $100 Preferred are outstanding the Corporation shall set aside, as a sinking fund for retirement of said shares, amounts sufficient to redeem, at their sinking fund redemption price, the following numbers of such shares: Not later than August 1 in the year 1978, and not later than August 1 in each year thereafter to and including the year 2007, Seven Hundred Fifty (750) shares, and not later than August 1 in the year 2008, Twenty-Five Hundred (2500) shares; provided, however that the Corporation may credit against the amount required to be set aside in any year, at their sinking fund redemption price, any of such theretofore acquired by it otherwise than through the sinking fund and not previously used as a basis for such credit. In addition the Corporation, at its option, may increase the amount set aside as a sinking fund in any year by an amount up to but not to exceed the amount required to be set aside in such year, but this right to set aside an additional amount in any year is non-cumulative so that, if not availed of in any year, it may not be carried forward and added to the optional amount available in any subsequent year or years; and any optional additional amounts so set aside as a sinking fund shall be applied to satisfy the Corporation's mandatory sinking fund payments in the inverse order of the dates upon which they must be set aside. The Corporation shall apply the amount set aside as a sinking fund on August 1 of the year in which set aside to the redemption of shares of Old $100 Preferred at a sinking fund redemption price which shall be an amount equal to the par value of said shares plus an amount equal to the dividends accumulated and unpaid thereon at the date fixed for redemption. The redemption procedure, including the procedure for giving notice of redemption, the manner of selecting the shares to be redeemed, and the effect of depositing the redemption price shall be the same in the case of sinking fund redemptions as in the case of optional redemptions under paragraph C(7).

G. Preemptive Rights

No holder of shares of any class of stock of this Corporation shall have any preemptive right or other right to subscribe for, purchase or receive any stock or securities convertible into stock of this Corporation which may be authorized, issued or acquired from time to time hereafter; and the Board of Directors, as and when it may deem advisable, may dispose of all or any portion of such stock or securities convertible into stock, free from any such right, for money or other lawful consideration, whether by sale, exchange offering to shareholders, or any other lawful means. H. Voting Rights

Each outstanding share, regardless of class, shall be entitled to one vote in each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders; except that in all elections for directors every shareholder shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, for the number of shares owned by him, for as many persons as there are directors to be elected, or to cumulate said shares, and give one candidate as many votes as the number of directors

(Questions 6(a), 7, 24)

McLeodUSA Incorporated ("McLeod") and Consolidated

Communications Inc. ("Consolidated") have determined that they will realize significant economic and marketing efficiencies through a transaction by which Consolidated will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of McLeod. Accordingly, on June 14, 1997, McLeod and Consolidated executed an Agreement and Plan of Merger ("Agreement"). Pursuant to the Agreement, McLeod has formed Eastside Acquisition Co. ("Eastside"), a wholly-owned Delaware corporation, for the purpose of consummating the proposed reorganization. Consolidated will merge with and into Eastside, with Eastside surviving. Eastside will then be renamed Consolidated Communications Inc. ("New Consolidated"). All subsidiaries of Consolidated will remain subsidiaries of New Consolidated. At the effective time of the merger, $155 million in cash and approximately 8.5 million shares of McLeod Class A Common Stock ($0.01 par value) will be distributed to the owners of Consolidated Common and Preferred Stock. Specifically, each share of Consolidated Series A Preferred Stock will be exchanged for approximately 4.5 shares of McLeod Class A Common Stock and each share of Consolidated Series B Preferred Stock will be exchanged for approximately 4.5 shares of McLeod Class A Common Stock. Consolidated Common Stock will be exchanged for a mix of cash and McLeod Class A Common Stock, which exact mix will be elected by each shareholder of Consolidated Common Stock.

The shares of Class B Common Stock may be converted into fully paid and nonassessable shares of Class A Common Stock at any time at the option of the holder thereof at the rate of one share of Class A Common Stock for each share of Class B Common Stock, subject to adjustment as provided below. If, at any time shares of Class B Common Stock are outstanding, the Corporation shall issue Class A Common Stock in a Class A Common Stock split without a corresponding Class B Common Stock split, the conversion rate shall be adjusted so that each share of Class B Common Stock shall be convertible into the number of shares of Class A Common Stock representing the same proportion of the total number of shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding after such stock split as the number of shares of Class A Common Stock into which such share of Class B Common Stock would have been convertible into in the absence of such stock split bears to the total number of shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to such stock split.

Any holder of shares of Class B Common Stock desiring to convert all or any part of such holder's shares of Class B Common Stock into shares of Class A Common Stock shall give written notice thereof to the Corporation, specifying the number of shares of Class B Common Stock such holder desires to convert and the desired conversion date (the "Conversion Date"), which shall be on a business day not less than five days after the date of such notice. On and after the Conversion Date, such holder shall be entitled to receive, upon surrender of a certificate or certificates representing the shares of Class B Common Stock so converted, a certificate for the corresponding number of shares of Class A Common Stock, determined in accordance with the provisions hereof. All shares of Class B Common Stock to be converted on the Conversion Date shall, whether or not the certificates for such shares shall have been surrendered for cancellation, be deemed to be no longer outstanding for any purpose and all rights with respect to such shares (except the right of the holder of the certificates for such shares to receive certificates for shares of Class A Common Stock) shall thereupon cease and terminate. Shares of Class B Common Stock converted pursuant to this paragraph shall be canceled and retired and shall not be reissued. Upon conversion, no fractional shares shall be issued and any fractions of a share shall be rounded up to the next highest number.
